

 What do I already Know?		 Subject: Geography		 What will I be learning?		 What is my end Goal?		 What will I be learning next?
I know that Market Drayton is a market town in Shropshire.	I can identify human and physical features.	Year Group: Year 1	Unit: Ironbridge Gorge	Ironbridge Gorge is in Shropshire, England, along the River Severn.	Locate Ironbridge Gorge on a map of the UK and identify key features.	I can explain why Ironbridge Gorge developed where it did, identify its human and physical features, and use maps to describe the area.		Locate India in Asia and compare it with the UK.	Use maps, keys, symbols and fieldwork data confidently.
I can use maps, keys and symbols to find places.	I know that rivers can influence where people live and work.			The gorge was formed by the River Severn and contains physical features such as rivers, hills and woodland.	Use maps, keys and aerial photographs to identify human and physical features.			Identify major physical and human features of India.	Investigate patterns in settlements and environments.
I can carry out simple fieldwork and record observations.	I can use compass directions to describe locations.	 Enquiry Question Focus Why was Ironbridge built here and why do people still visit today?		Ironbridge is famous for the Iron Bridge and is an important tourist attraction.	Compare Ironbridge Gorge with Market Drayton and explain why settlements developed there.	 AfL Questions. Why did the settlement of Ironbridge develop near the River Severn? What are the human and physical features of Ironbridge Gorge?		Explore how climate affects the way people live.	Present geographical findings using maps and geographical vocabulary.
 Star Words					 Key vocabulary
Gorge	River Severn	Iron Bridge	Tourism	Settlement	Bridge	River	Landmark	Woodland	Hill

