

 What do I already Know?		 Subject: History		 What will I be learning?		 What is my end Goal?		 What will I be learning next?
Britain and India are different countries.	People in the past made important decisions.	Year Group: Year 2	Unit: Clive of India	Robert Clive worked for the East India Company.	Britain wanted goods such as spices and textiles from India.	I can explain who Clive of India was and why he is remembered. I can describe how his actions changed Britain and India and explain that people have different views about his legacy.		Other significant people from history.	How empires changed countries.
Trade involves buying and selling goods.	We can learn about the past from different sources.	 Enquiry Question Focus Why do we remember Clive of India?		Clive played an important role in the Battle of Plassey in 1757.	The battle increased British influence in India.	 AfL Questions. Why did Britain want control of India? Why do people have different views about Clive of India?		Using historical evidence.	Cause and consequence in history.
Some historical figures are remembered today.	Events in the past can have lasting consequences.			Clive helped establish British rule in parts of India.	People have different views about Clive's actions.			Different viewpoints about the past.	Comparing life in the past and present.
 Star Words					 Key vocabulary
East India Company	Battle of Plassey	Trade	Empire	Legacy	Britain	India	History	Evidence	Consequence